

The Open University

Open Space: Centre for Geography @ the Open University presents...

spatial delights/an engagement with the work of Doreen Massey

The First Annual Doreen Massey Lecture

spatial delights/an engagement with the work of Doreen Massey

Doreen Massey has been at the forefront of public and critical geography for many years. In this first of an ongoing lecture series, a panel of speakers will reflect on 'Space, Place and Politics,' key interests that have been central to her contribution. There will also be a response from Doreen and time for open debate on these themes.

Panellists will include: Ash Amin, Olafur Eliasson, Stuart Hall, Ken Livingstone, Chantal Mouffe, Jamie Peck, Michael Rustin, Nigel Thrift and Jane Wills.

A reception will be held after the lecture

Royal Geographical Society
1 Kensington Gore
London, SW7 2AR

11 March 2009
2-7pm

RSVP: Jan Smith • j.f.smith@open.ac.uk • (0)1908 654 456